

has vacancies at Hasselt University for

2 Web Developers & a Software web-Platform Architect

MISSION

Working within a small but growing E-commerce team focusing on 'fashion on demand', and reporting to the Operation Manager, you will be responsible for:

- Implementing all Web-related aspects of Bivolino.com's commercial and brand strategy.
- The creative graphic design of the Web site. Defining & programming the 'on demand' e-commerce Platform Architecture & Community for BivolinoServices & Bivolino/Bivoshop.com.
- The continuous improvement of the navigation and user-friendliness of Bivolino.com.
- The implementation of - SMO : Social Media Optimisation (Link building)
- The creation, graphic design and implementation of Bivolino.com's internet sales promotions, competitions viral marketing and Web 2.0 initiatives, amongst others, to promote the create-your-own concept.

YOUR PROFILE

- A degree in ICT (Bachelor or Master in Computer Science) with strong design skills.
- At least 2 year's experience in Internet site management.
- A working knowledge of the following programming languages / software packages: C# , Asp.x ,html, xml, webserices , .Net , VB server-side, javascript, SQL,Photoshop, Dreamweaver, Flash8, ImageReady.
- Good written English, and the ability to both communicate and reconcile technical, marketing and commercial aims.
- Fluency in Dutch, French and English.

OUR OFFER

We offer you an exciting job in a youthful , innovative and dynamic team rewarding you with:

- A competitive salary & extra-legal insurance.
- Education and training .

If you are interested in applying for this position, please send a motivation letter with your CV to: Mr Byvoet Michel , Wetenschapspark , 1/9 University Hasselt .B – 3590 Diepenbeek
Email: byvoet@bivolino.com Tel: 011252525